

Experience the charm of the Eastern Shore town where Paramount Pictures filmed Gary Marshall's romantic comedy "Runaway Bride"

See how the quaint town of Berlin was transformed into Hale, Maryland. Stroll down Main Street and visit the shops where Ike (Richard Gere) fell in love with Maggie (Julia Roberts). Visit the Atlantic Hotel where many of the scenes were filmed.

Getting Here

Directions

From The Beaches

Take Rt. 50 west to Rt. 113 South,
Right onto Old Ocean City Blvd.,
Left on Main St.

From Points North

Take Rt. 113 South,
Right onto Old Ocean City Blvd.,
Left on Main St.

From Points West

Take Rt. 50 east,
Turn right onto Main St.

From Points South

Take Rt. 113 north,
Left on Old Ocean City Blvd.,
Left onto Main St.

BerlinMainStreet.com
410.973.2051

RUNAWAYBRIDE Walking Tour

Filmed in historic downtown
Berlin (Hale), Maryland

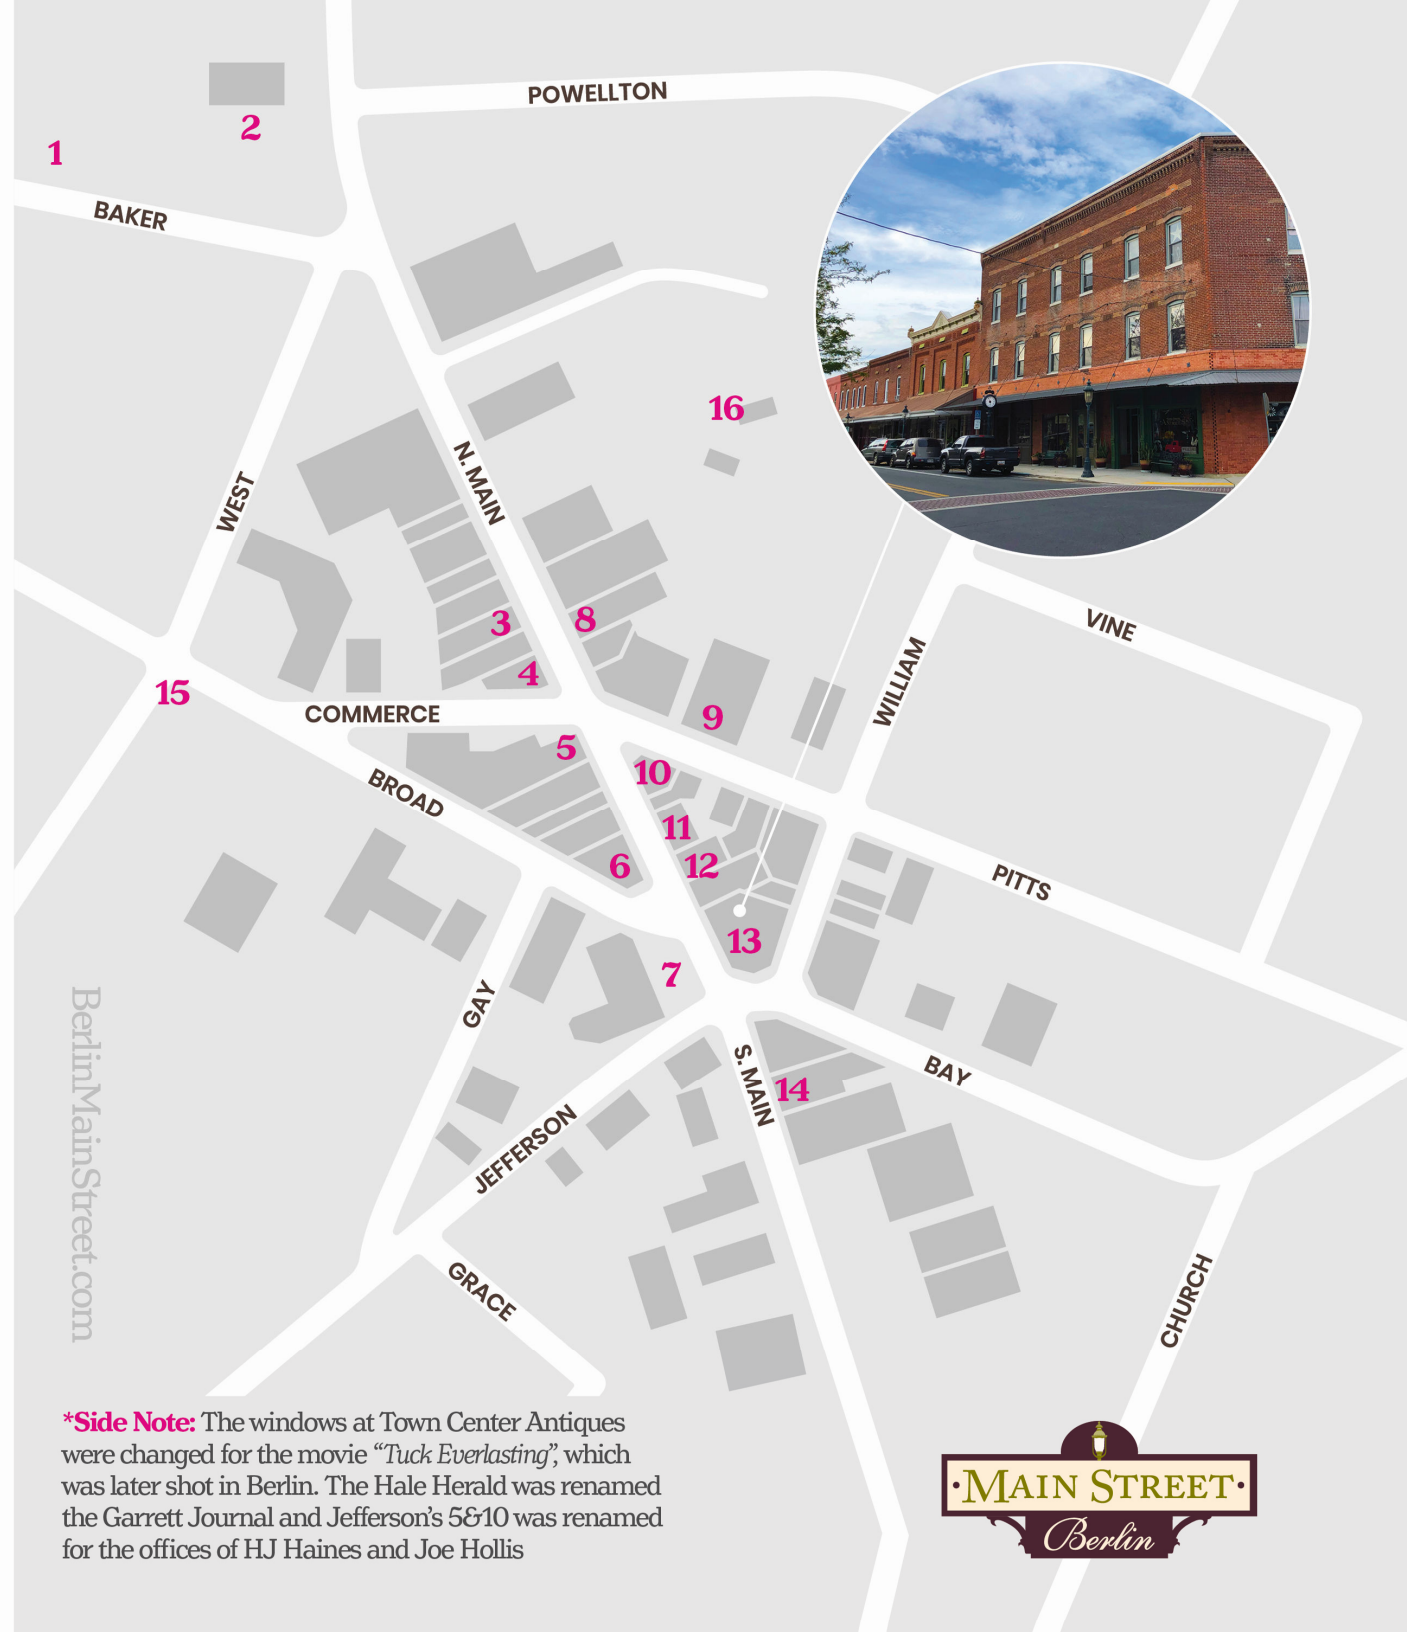

See the town &
meet the people
that Hollywood fell in love with.

 Map of Filming Locations

Locations

- 1 Maggie's House
Baker St. at Rail Road Tracks
- 2 Taylor House Museum
208 N. Main St.
- 3 Hale Hardware
106 N. Main St.
- 4 Bridal Shop
100 N. Main St.
- 5 Hale Post Office
24 N. Main St.
- 6 Falcon Diner
10 N. Main St.
- 7 Atlantic Hotel
2 S. Main St.
- 8 Photography Studio
103 N. Main St.
- 9 Prop Storage & Wardrobe
11 Pitts St.
- 10 Designs By Maggie
27 N. Main St.
- 11 Arts & Crafts
19 N. Main St.
- 12 Curl Up & Dye
17 N. Main St.
- 13 Hale Herald* & Jeffersons 5&10
1 N. Main St.
- 14 Paramount Office
7 S. Main St.
- 15 Welcome to Hale Sign
West St. & Broad St. (no longer standing)
- 16 Peach Shed
12 Artisans Way

Side Note: The windows at Town Center Antiques were changed for the movie "Tuck Everlasting", which was later shot in Berlin. The Hale Herald was renamed the Garrett Journal and Jefferson's 5&10 was renamed for the offices of HJ Haines and Joe Hollis

